A. HUTZLER'S SONS

respectfully announce to their friends and the public generally that they have removed to their

NEW AND ELEGANT BUILDING
No. 315 east Broad street.

As the successors of A. HUTZLER & SON who were the successors of A. HUTZLER, who began business in this city nearly fifty years ago, we feel justified in saying that our reputation has already been made.

To our new place we add an experience which, extending back to the year 1810, enables us to understand all the wants of the trade; and the possession of every facility requisite to a successful business house, we hope to meet every reasonable demand of our patrons.

Our endeavor is to give the interest of purchasers to make our house a resort where they may expect to find, first of all, attention to their wants accompanied by a spirit of accommodation and politeness; and, finally, a full and varied assortment of

DRY GOODS, FANCY GOODS,

CLOAKS, BLANKETS,

RUGS, C. MATTENS,

MATTENS, OIL-CLOTHS,

CURTAINS, AND

HOUSE-FURNISHING GOODS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

We will from time to time increase our assortment and introduce all the Novelties of our line as soon as they can be obtained, and our prices will be kept as low as fair dealing and legitimate competition may permit.
